Panama City, Florida, May 30th, 1911.

The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co.,
Milwaukee, Wis.

I George M. West, insured under policy No 226544 issued by your company, hereby request that you change the beneficiary from my executors, administrators or assigns, to Grace H. West, my grand daughter, as to $1.000, and to Lillian C. West, my wife, as to the remainder; in event of the prior deathof my grand daughter Grace H. West, her share to revert to my wife Lillian C. West, and in event of the prior death of my wife Lillian C. West, her share to revert to my executors, administrators or assigns. This change is made subject to and without prejudice to the existing loan made by your company, on security of said policy and on account of which the policy is held by the Company by assignment. I do hereby reserve to myself the privilege of changing the beneficiaries.

Insured.